

In The Specification:

Applicants appreciate that the examiner pointed out all informalities occurred in the specification, as well as in the "ABSTRACT." Therefore, applicants amended all informalities and inconsistencies between the specification and the amended claims. Enclosed please find a copy of an amended specification, in which the added portions are underlined and the deleted portions are crossed through a middle line.